Dear Ray:

Thank you for the information which you recently sent us concerning the above-named individual. This is certainly helpful to us and will build our file so that future registration attempts may be refused.

We would like to have more information concerning this situation. Has this case come to trial and has there been a final disposition of it? If Mr. McMillian was convicted, we would like to know the sentencing that took place so that we may add this to our file. At the present time, I feel the case is very weak for refusal of any registration attempts should they come at a later time. We therefore would need a conviction or more information of actions with other youth.

I am sorry to put you to this trouble, but it is most necessary in today's legal world that we have all the facts possible so that registration may be refused. Thanks for your help in protecting the youth of America.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. McMullian:

After careful review, we have decided that your registration with the Boy Scouts of America should be suspended. We are therefore compelled to request that you sever any relations that you may have with the Boy Scouts of America.

You should understand that BSA leadership registration is a privilege and is not automatically granted to everyone who applies. We reserve the right to suspend registration whenever there is a concern that any individual may not measure up to the high standards of leadership which the BSA seeks to provide for American youth. Please also understand that this decision and the reasons for it will be maintained as confidential.

If you wish to have this decision reviewed, please write to me, explaining your version of the facts supporting your claim that your registration as a BSA leader should be granted or reinstated.

Sincerely,

Richard L. Burdick
President

Grand jury indicts three for sexual abuse crimes involving local children

SMITHVILLE — A former Boy Scout leader has been indicted for indecency with a child.

Billy McMillan of Smithville was arrested Monday evening and was placed in the Bastrop County jail under a $10,000 bond. The Bastrop County Grand Jury handed down the indictment last Wednesday (May 28).

McMillan was one of three men indicted last week for sexual abuse of children. The grand jury also indicted Roger Hayes of Cedar Creek for indecency with a child and Ralph Howes, in an Elgin case, for sexual assault of a child. Hayes is under a $10,000 bond and Howes is held under a $5,000 bond.

McMillan was indicted based on the video-taped testimony of a Smithville boy, according to Smithville police chief Larry Barmore. The boy told authorities that that McMillan approached him early in the afternoon of Saturday, May 24. According to a police report, McMillan, whom the juvenile recognized as a Boy Scout leader, asked the boy if he wanted to go to McMillan's house and watch "Looney Tunes."

The boy agreed. Once at the house, McMillan showed the boy obscene magazines; McMillan then sat down next to the boy "and started kissing and hugging him," according to the police report. The boy moved away and said he had to leave within 30 minutes. The police report says McMillan then offered the boy $5 and then $10 to disrobe.

The boy refused, the police report stated, and then left the house. The boy went home, told his mother the series of events and they, with the help of a neighbor, called the Smithville police. The Smithville police contacted the Bastrop County district attorney's office, according to Barmore, and investigator Georgia Compton video taped the boy's testimony.

The tape was shown to the grand jury the following Wednesday and the indictment was handed down that day.

Barmore said that McMillan has a "clean record" and that the indictment stems from only this single incident. Barmore said the incident was not related to any Boy Scout activities.

The grand jury indicted seven other individuals last Wednesday:

—Anthony F. Wilson was indicted for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

—Johnny Benito Arellano (a.k.a. Johnny Hernandez) was indicted for an April 18 burglary of a house owned by Chris Tijenna.

—David W. Henke was indicted for the theft of grain owned by Edwin O. Lundgren, Jr. and valued at over $20,000.

—Sharon Denise Moschella was indicted for possession of between 50 and 200 pounds of marijuana and was placed under a $50,000 bond.

—William Stull, Jr., was indicted for the possession of a controlled substance and was placed under a $21,000 bond.

—Eric Wilkins was indicted for arson. He is accused of attempting to burn down a house owned by Laura Wilkins.

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Subject: Billy Ray McMillan

Dear Ray:

We received a telephone call earlier this year related to the above-named individual. It was indicated he lives at [REDACTED] in Smithville, Texas 78957. It was also indicated that he was a member of the committee of Troop 103.

We would like more information concerning this individual and facts for our files if we should refuse registration should attempts come to us at a later time.

Please send us any copies of newspaper clippings, court records, or statements by individuals that will help us in building a file. We would also like the completion of the Confidential Record Sheet. This should be done as soon as possible so that we may identify Mr. McMillan should he try to register in another location.

Thank you for your help in this matter. Let us know if we may be of service from this office.

Sincerely,
